CALL FOR PAPERS

We kindly invite presentations from all fields of polymer science and engineering.

We especially like to encourage Ph.D. students and other junior scientists to submit contributions from their work. Many of the now established and well-recognized scientists in both Academia and industry in the Nordic countries had their debut at one of the former Nordic Polymer Days.

Oral presentation or posters from Industrial people are also welcomed.

Deadline for submission of a 1 A4 page (max.) abstract for either an oral presentation or a poster is March 1, 2012. Please Send to Helle Borch, IDA, E-mail: hbo@ida.dk

SCIENTIFIC TOPICS

All polymer related subjects are most welcome.

The meeting will devote special emphasis on the following topics:

Biopolymers - Feedstocks, Biotech Resources, and New Applications

New Functional Polymer Materials, Energy Materials, and Novel Synthetic Approaches

Novel approaches in polymer processing

Polymers for Medical Applications, Biomedicine and Pharmaceuticals

Polymers in the Nanoworld

Polymer Physics and New Methods of Analysis

Polymer Surfaces and Interfaces - Modification and Characterization

Thermoset Composite Materials

A number of plenary lectures focusing on some of the main topics are planned.

EXHIBITION

In addition, an exhibition on primarily analytical instrumentation, process equipment, and products will be arranged. In that connection exhibitors' are encouraged to give a 15 min. lecture or to present a poster at the Conference.
